

Canine Aggression Seminar

Presented by Brenda Aloff

Saturday-Sunday, April 2nd - 3rd, 2005

Sponsored by All Dogs Training Services & Positive Way Dog Training

Seminar Location - Holiday Inn Express 46194 N. I-94 Service Dr. Belleville, MI 48111

Seminar times - 9:00am till 4:00pm (both days)

The focus of this seminar will be on Canine Learning Theory, Aggression and Behavior. Brenda Aloff is an expert in aggression and will be showing us how to use positive reinforcement methods to modify and manage canine aggression as it relates to people as well as other canines.

- This will be a working seminar. A limit of 8 dogs per day will be chosen to participate in the working portion of Brenda's presentation. There is an additional fee for this, and you MUST pre-register on a special form if you wish to bring a dog for this workshop
- Brenda Aloff is a member of NADOI (National Association of Dog Obedience Instructors) and APDT (Association of Pet Dog Trainers) She gives lectures and seminars on dog behavior and training nationwide with much of her focus given towards aggression issues. Brenda is the owner of Heaven on Arf, a training facility in Midland, MI where she does canine training and behavioral modification & Re-Socialization classes for dogs with aggression issues.
- Brenda is the author of two books. Brenda's first book, "Positive Reinforcement: Training Dogs In The Real World", was published in 2000. In 2001, this book was a finalist for the prestigious Dog Writers Association of America Award. Brenda's Second book "Aggression In Dogs-Practical Management, Prevention & Behavior Modification" has been described as "the encyclopedia reference guide for anyone wanting to modify dog behavior" - "an excellent reference tool for anyone interested in understanding canine behavior and the prevention of aggression".
